ANTWERP STILL HOLDING OUT

City Withstands Terrific Assaults and Bombardment of Germans.

SKIES ILLUMINATED.

Powerful Expeditionary Force of British Artillery and Infantry Relieves Wearied Belgians.

Ghent (via Ostend), Oct. 9.—Antwerp still withstands the terrific assaults and bombardment of the besiegers who almost encircle the city.

All through the night the rain of shells on the inner circle of fortifications continued, while occasionally a shell would drop in the city proper.

So violent is the bombardment that the glare of flames rising from the city lights up the skies for miles. Another raid of Zeppelins last night brought terror to besieged, as bo after bomb dropped into the apparently doomed city.

According to unofficial advice and to refugees arriving at Ghent, the Belgian troops that have been concentrated at Antwerp have been removed. King Albert himself is reported to have left the city at the head of his troops and, with his staff is reported at Zelzaole, a Belgian town near Sas Van Gent, twenty-five miles west of Antwerp.

In addition to the strong force of Belgians left in the city, a sufficient number to completely man the forts it is semi-officially admitted that a powerful expeditionary force of British artillery and infantry have taken the place of the wearied defenders, and is now vigorously replying to the attacks of the three German corps that constitute the besieging force.

Under cover of the most terrific artilery attack that has marked the assault on Antwerp, the German veterans of the Marne and the Aisne succeeded in forcing a passage of the Scheldt. Repeated attempts had been repulsed with heavy losses, but the crossing was finally made while a heavy fog blotted out the early morning sun.

At 6 o'clock about 500 infantrymen were seen crossing under cover of heavy artillery fire. They were observed by the Belgian patrols, who immediately opened fire, and after accounting for a few of the advancing infantry, withdrew to the main Belgian lines.

Berlin (via The Hague), Oct 9—Complete investment of Antwerp, forecasting the early fall of the fortress, and an overwhelming repulse of French attacks on the left wing in France is the digest of war operations as given out by the war office today. German forces have crossed the river Nethe far in advance of forts Waelhem and Wavre.

In the eastern battlefield German and Austrian forces have completely stopped the Russian offensive, inflicting enormous losses.

Conjunction of Austrian and German armies at Ivangerod has greatly endangered the Russian center from a flanking movement.

NEWS OF THE DAY

The House yesterday finally adopted the conference report on the Clayton anti-trust bill.

The French authorities have seized food supplies valued at between $1,500,000, and $2,000,000, which had been deposited on the docks at Havre by a German firm. The action was taken to prevent the supplies being sent abroad.

A dispatch from Bordeaux says a sublieutenant at the front found a letter in the pocket of a wounded German from the latter's wife. One sentence read: "I hope you will spare neither women nor children." This letter was returned to the writer with this note: "Madame—This letter was found in your husband's pocket. He is wounded, and is now being humanely cared for."

The London Daily Telegraph prints an interview given its Washington correspondent by Secretary of State Bryan. In this interview Mr. Bryan said the United States had faith in Japan's purposes and did not question her intentions. There is no foundation for the reports that the United States was resentful because Japan went to Great Britain's aid in the Far East. Mr. Bryan also declared the relations between the United States and Great Britain and the United States and Japan were of the friendliest.

Four new bishops were elected yesterday by the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church in session at Minneapolis, Minn. Those chosen were: Rev. Herman Page, rector of St. Paul's Church, Chicago, who will preside over the diocese of Spokane. Rev. Paul Kones, of Salt Lake City, diocese of Utah. Rev. George Coolidge Hunting, of Berkley, Cal., diocese of Nevada. Rev. Hirman R. Hulse, of New York, diocese of Cuba.

Secretary Bryan has sent to ambassadars in the capitals of all the warring countries of Europe a message telling of President Wilson's day of prayer for peace and the seriousness and sincerity with which the people of the United States responded to it. Widespread favorable comment in the European press over the President's action prompted the sending of the message, which will be communicated to the foreign offices in London, Paris, Berlin, Petrograd, Tokio, Vienna and Antwerp.

Announcement is made that the Bethlehem, Pa., Steel Company, acting as purchasing agent for the French government, has placed an order with a Cleveland automobile concern for 600 motor trucks for use of the French army in the European war. An order for an additional 400 trucks has as yet not been placed. It was also stated that manufacturers have been asked to submit bids supplying 1,000 touring cars of the five and seven passenger size. These cars are also to be purchased for the French government through the Bethlehem Steel Company.

A negro burglar was choked to death yesterday at Alton, Ill., by Joseph Winkler after the negro had cut Winkler, his wife and son with a razor. Winkler's son, Frederick, aged 18 years, awoke to see the negro leaning over his bed. A struggle began. The rest of the family were aroused and hurried to the aid of the son. The elder Winkler seized the negro, choking him until he weakened. Frederick went for a rope with which the negro was bound. The police were notified but when they arrived the man was dead.

The German government has offered a large sum to Prof. Argentieri, of Aquilla, for his pocket system of radiotelegraphy. Argentieri patriotically refuses the offer, preferring to place his invention at the service of Italy, his own country. He has satisfactorily carried out his experiments before an Italian commission. The apparatus will cost less than $3, and is capable of intercepting messages from the Eiffel Tower, 730 miles from Aquilla.

ALLIES' LINES PRESS FORWARD

Fierce and Uniterrupted Fighting Continues Today.

LACONIC DISPATCH.

General Battle Confined to Two Wings—French Endeavoring to Pierce German Line.

Paris, Oct. 9—The allied lines are pressing slowly forward.

Fierce fighting, almost uninterrupted in character, continues on the southwest angle of the line, where the German line under Generals Von Boehm and Von Kluck turns sharply northward.

This, and the statement that all along the battle front the situation continues satisfactory, is the substance of General Gallieni's information as announced to the press today.

General fighting apparently is confined to the two wings The French forces are endeavoring by a concerted move to pierce the German line above Camp Des Romains.

On the west the line extends almost to the Holland frontier, if cavalry outposts are included.

THREE THOUSAND IN LINE.

First Battle of World's Series Between Boston Braves and Athletics.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9—Boston won game by a score of 7 to 1.

Philadelphia, Oct. 9—The sun wasn't shining in Philadephia early today but if it had been, its more or less famous slanting rays would have fallen upon some 3,000 sleeply, bedraggled men and boys waiting in line for admission to Shibe Park for the first battle of the world's series between the Boston Braves and Athletics.

Most of these watchful waiters had held their positions throughout the night. Many were sleeping at their posts at 7:30 propped against the cold concrete wall of the park.

The gates to the bleachers were not opened until 1 0o'clock this morning, but the line which began forming Wednesday afternoon remained solid to the last and new arrivals put in their appearance as the morning wore on, giving the police plenty to do in an effort to preserve order.

It was a motly looking crowd that was waiting for admission to the field where Chief Bender and Dick Rudolph, who will probably be Boston's pitcher will match their cunning this afternoon. The ground was littered with dirty newspaper and scraps from the lunches carried to the scene by many of the watchers.

Around 8 o'clock was the breakfast hour. Venders appeared and the favorite breakfast dishes were crullers, oranges, bananas, pop corn, chocolate and coffee. There were no women in the all-night line, but by daylight several had appeared and a score were hovering on the outskirts of the bleacher line. Best places in the line could be purchased for $1.50 with scale ranging on down according to the position occupied.

Some of the boys in line were endeavoring to sell out and announced that disposing of their place for today's game they intended to immediately start another line for the second tussle tomorrow.

CARLIN'S LETTER FRAMED.

Columbia Fire Company Takes Action on Representative's Letter.

At a meeting of the Columbia Fire Company held on Wednesday night, Secretary E. J. McIntosh was instructed by a unanimous vote to have the letter received from Representative Charles C. Carlin enclosing his check for tickets to the excursion held by the company, framed.

Mr. Carlin's letter written July 15th. and Mr. McIntosh's reply are as follows:

July 15, 1914.

E. J. McIntosh, Esq., Secretary, Columbia Fire Company, No. 4, Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Mr. McIntosh:—

I am in receipt of your favor enclosing me ten tickets for the excursion of the Columbia Volunteer Fire Company. I was an enthusiastic rooter for this Company when I was a boy, and it is a pleasure to me to enclose you my check, not only for the ten tickets which you sent me, but for ten additional tickets which you may send me.

I sincerely hope that the excursion will be a success.

Sincerely yours, C. C. CARLIN.

July 21, 1914.

Hon. C. C. Carlin, M. C.,
House of Representatives.

My dear Mr. Carlin:

Yours of the 15th insant, inclosing your check for $5.00 for Columbia Fire Company's Excursion Tickets received:

It gives me pleasure to inclose 10 additional tickets in accordance with your letter. Mr. Posey has often told us how you would lay down your newspapers and help the Columbia Fire Company in its hours of need, and it is with a high sense of admiration that we look upon you for your past and present assistance. I will certainly see that your letter gets before the Company so all the boys can realize what a friend they have in you.

You have the united wishes of the entire company, I am sure, for a higher position in public life that is more worthy of you.

We are indeed thankful to you.

Sincerely, E. J. McIntosh, Secty.

BURNING OIL WELL.

$75,000 a Day is Lost to Lord Cowdray by Flames at Mexican Plant

Vera Cruz, Oct. 9—Burning fiercely and lighting up the countryside for fifty miles in every direction, the Portretro del Llano gusher, 125 miles southeast of Tampico, Mexico, the greatest oil well in the world, may become a total loss. It is feared that it will share the fate of the famous Des Bocas gusher, which was one of the greatest ever discovered, having a flow of more than 100,000 barrels every twenty- four hours. The Des Bocas was drilled five years ago, and was owned by Lord Cowdray. It produced, under restraint, not less than 100,000 barrels a day for a long time and then caught fire from the coals under the boiler of the drilling outfit It burned for three months, notwithstanding the desperate efforts made to extinguish the fire, and then fused its walls and it is now a lake of salt water, boiling always boiling and covering more than thirty acres off the shore of Lake Tamiahua.

The Portrero gusher was bought in about three years ago, and the oil shot up with such great force that for a long time it was thought that it could not be controlled. It flowed more than 120,000 barrels a day, and all efforts failed for several months to 'cap' and control the flow By the time this was done the whole countryside for miles around was drenched with oil .The small canyons were filled with it, and every depression was a lake of oil. Eventually steel cap with a safety valve which, after repeated failures, was put in place. This cap allowed a flow of 15,000 barrels a day, and the Portrero produced this amount or as much more as was required for three years It was never possible tostop the flow entirely, as can be done with the ordinary small gusher, because the pressure from below was so tremendous.

On August 15 the Portrero suddenly burst into flame.

RED MEN'S NIGHT IN ALEXANDRIA

Hundreds of Braves Ride and March Through Streets of City.

CAPTURE PALEFACES.

Class Initiation of 244 and Banquet —Speeches Delivered by Prominent Members of Order.

A descent was made upon Alexandria by Indians last night, but the incursion having been anticipated by the resident palefaces, they were received hospitably, and the pipe of peace was indulged in while tomahawks were concealed. The pageant, composed of members of Osceola and Seminole Tribes. It was a gala night of Alexandria, and many persons, old and young, were on the streets witnessing the elaborate parade of the braves, which included those whose wigwams are here, as well as many Washington and surrounding places Apart from those who have for some time sat around camp fires, 244 palefaces, about to become sons of the forest, participated in the pageant. The streets through which the parade passed were kept aglow by flambeaux carried by the persons in the line.

Two goats marched in the procession as though they were perfectly at home and enjoying the occasion as much as any one.

The parade started early in the night, and the weather being mild, the streets were soon thronged by young and old, most of whom followed the tribes in their meanderings. A long string of automobiles carrying members of the organization headed the parade.

The parade was marshaled by Kenneth W. Ogden, and was headed by the American Indian Guard Band and four members of the police force. Sergt. Bettis, Policemen Ferguson, Bell and Campbell, members of the Red Men.

Members of Seminole and Osceola Tribes marched in a body in the parade. The 244 new members received last night will be divided among the two tribes as follows: Seminole, 156 and Osceola. 88.

Conferring of the degree work took place in the hall of the new Richmond Theater. Immediately following there was a banquet which was served in Odd Fellow's Hall. During the evening several of the visitors made short addresses and it was after midnight before the Washington delegation in a special train, left for their homes.

Members of the degree team of Logan Tribe of Washington, conferring the work, were J. H. Hummer, prophet. James A. Madison, sachem; T. H. Dennis, senior sagamore; F. A Madison, junior sagamore; F. W. Shephard, first sannap; T. Wintermyer, sceond sannap; Edward Mastin Charles Scheible, F. M. Eichelberger H. Danner, warriors; Edward Soulder, Edward Kubatz, J. T. Brown, F. Burrows, braves,; George Carmody, W. Burrows, scouts; George Sedgwick, P. Louthan, W. C. McKim, runners.

Among the distinguished guests attending was J. Ben Moore, great sachem of Virginia.

The following were aides to Kenneth W. Ogden, chief marshal: J. William May, F. C. Glasgow, John W. Schofield, from Seminole Tribe: J. W. Garnett, E. F. Downham, and Harvey Ticer, from Osceola Tribe.

Hon. C. C. Carlin was one of the palefaces admitted to the council fire last night. He will become a member of Seminole Tribe.

During the evening Sachem H. H. Newton was the recipient of a handsome emblematic watch fob as a testimonial to his efficiency and work.

Sachem Newton has brought more palefaces into the organization than any other member of Seminole Tribe.

The following local committee had charge of the parade and entertainment: Osceola Tribe, A. J. Butcher, C. M. Schwab, and Ernest Bisson. Seminole Tribe, E. L. Finks, W. S. Nicklin and R. C. Sullivan.

Lady Friends of the tribes worked assiduously toward making the affair the success it proved to be.

May Convoy Steamer.

A convoy for the Kronprinzessin Cecile, to bring her safely from Bar Harbor, Maine, to a safer port for the winter, is under consideration of the State epartment, according to Acting Secretary of State Lansing.

The owners of the vessel have told the State Department it would be dangerous for the ship to winter at Bar Harbor, but at the same time they are fearful of its capture by British warships if she ventures from port to seek a safer haven.

Lansing stated the navy is carefully guarding the ship while it remains in Bar Harbor.

VON MOLTKE STILL CHIEF.

German Officials Explain Probable Basis for Erroneous Report.

Rome, Oct. 9—Inquiries made in German military circles with regard to reports that General von Moltke had been removed as chief of general staff of the German army brings forth the statement that the report is incorrect.

The erroneous report, it is declared, probably was caused by the change of officers made in the German quarter-masters general's department; where General von Voight-Rhetz was appointed to succeed General von Stein. General von Moltke retains his post.

'NEATH THE LION'S PAW.

Shown in Three Parts at the Richmond Theater Tonight.

The drama opens in an engineer's office, where the leading characters are about to close the business for the day. Hans the spy, who wishes to gain possession of valuable documents plans to kidnap the typist who holds the keys to the safe. She is led to take a ride in an auto, where she is bound and gagged and thrown into the woods. She recovers quicker than the plotters thought and telephones the engineer of the plot.

The message comes to late, for the safe is robbed and the thief is seen escaping by the roof. His only means of escape is by jumping onto some telephone wires and then on to the roof of an adjoining house. The engineer and typist aboard the same train as the robber, with the intention of holding him up at the point of a revolver. The robber and engineer have a fierce struggle on the rear of the train and the latter is thrown onto a siding. The typist rushes to assist the engineer but the robber climbs to the top of the train. The woman follows but in the struggle which ensues she is thrown from the train, which is going at full speed.

She is uninjured and the thief knowing she has an appointment at a house adjoining a building used for storage of lions rushes there. The doors to the lion cages are fixed with ropes. The woman is locked in and the ropes let loose by the thief. The lions attack the woman but she escapes to another room. While doing this she failed to observe one lion that had escaped to the anteroom and thinking herself free, she swoons away. The lion she had not counted on breaks down the door and attacks her. Only in the nick of time does the engineer arrives and shoots the lion.

REPORT OF FALL OF PRZEMYSL

Russians Mobilized at War saw Start on March to Berlin.

95 MILES FROM POSEN.

Fighting Continues, But Czar's Advance is Steady and Overwhelming, According to Reports.

Rome, Oct 9—Unofficial diplomatic advices received here carry the report that Przemsyl has fallen before the Russian attack. The Russian embassy has no official confirmation.

Petrograd, Oct. 9—The Russian center, mobilized at Warsaw has started forward on the first lap of its march to Berlin.

War office advices today said that this army including the pick of the Czar's forces is now entering action in the territory around Wloclawek, around the Vistula, and thirty miles from Thorn. Russian forces in Poland have advanced to within ninety-five miles of Posen, it is asserted.

Fighting continues, but the Russian advance is steady and overwhelming.

CUT OFF WOMEN'S ARMS.

Miss Helen Coleman Writes of Awful Plight of Belgians.

Suffolk, Va. Oct. 9—Miss Helen M. Coleman of Birmingham, England, who has frequently visited her brother, the Rev. John F. Coleman, rector of St. Paul's P. E. church, and who has many friends in Suffolk, writes in a letter dated September 25, as follows: "Every day such sad things come to light. There are a good many Belgians now in Birmingham, two of them young girls, who each had a hand cut off by the Germans, and one a woman whose ears were cut off by the Germans. Can you think it possible? Yet, so it is!"

"The home for the refugees is just above here and I go in to see them. They are all 'adopted' for the time being, until their government can help them, and rebuild their homes.

"I am hoping to get two girls or a mother and daughter, but so far only large families have come over. They have lost everything they possessed, yet do not seem to repine.

"They were sitting in the garden this afternoon, laughing and talking and seemed to take things philosophically. They speak mostly Flemish, but some speak French too."

Miss Coleman has volunteered for the Red Cross service and is now in Queen's hospital, Birmingham, England. Miss Coleman says further: "The larger number of British wounded are brought to the home hospitals for treatment and all seem anxious to get well and get back. There are now over 12,000 Belgian refugees in England and all homes, from cottage to castle, have been thrown open to them."

DOUBTS SEIZURE OF ISLAND.

No Confirmation Received From Tokyo of Reported Raid on Carolines.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Lacking confirmation of the reported seizure of the Island of Yap in the Caroline group, the Japanese embassy doubted today that Japan's activities in the war have been extended that far. It was stated at the embassy that the Tokyo foreign office has never confirmed the report.

Assurances were given by the embassy again today that Japan would extend her war activities only far enough to protect her commerce. It was declared that such opinions have been presented to the State Department.

The embassy pointed out today, also that Japan has nothing to fear from the opening of the Dardanelles. Although this would release a large Russian war fleet, the embassy declared that with England as an ally, Japan had nothing to fear in the Far East.

ANNUAL FALL OPENING

The up-to-date store of Swan Bros. was thronged with men and women all day yesterday, the occasion being the annual fall and winter opening of all departments. Today was another repitition and the same thing is expected tomorrow the last day of the opening.

For this classic event the store had been tastefully decorated with palms, but the display windows were not forgotten, they setting forth an inviting appearance. The large stock of latest creations, in dress goods, ladies ready-to-wear apparel and mens haberdashery was the envy of all.

At no time in the history of this popular store has the stock of merchandise been so complete and up-to the-minute than at the present time. Those present at the opening yesterday and today were more than pleased at the showing and the proprietors were congratulated for their efforts on all sides.

European Powers Purchase Great Quantities of War Supplies.

Washington Oct., 9—Unfavorable trade balances that have been piling up against the United States as a result of the stagnation of world commerce incident to the European war are daily being scaled down through the large foreign orders which are being placed in the market of this country from all sections of the globe.

From the warring nations orders and inquiries for supplies required by armies in the field are constantly flowing into the great commercial and manufacturing centers of this country, while from neutral nations come urgent inquiries for the necessities of life, cut off from these countries by the closing of the gigantic supply markets of Europe.

ARRANGE FOR PARADE

Sunday School Association Committee Meet and Make Final Plans for Next Sunday's Turnout.

The chairman of the committees of the Teachers' Sunday School Association of this city having in charge the Union Sunday School Parade and Song Festival which will take place next Sunday afternoon met again yesterday afternoon at five o'clock and perfected the final plans. The Alexandria Musical Band and the Indian Guard Band will participate in the parade and in the exercises at the stand at Cameron and Washington streets.

The colors of the respective Sunday schools of the city will be a pleasing feature of the turnout. The scholars of the schools will be known by their colors, and when grouped around the stand will present all the hues of the rainbow. They will also carry attractive banners.

Seats will be reserved for the clergy, the Mayor and newspaper men. The stand will be erected on Washington and Cameron Streets, facing the east. Visitors will take their places at the back of the schools both north and south.

The following hymns will be rendered: "Onward, Christian Soldiers," "The Son of God Goes Forth to War," "I Love Him," "When the Roll is Called up Yonder," "Stand up, Stand up for Jesus," "O, Come all ye Faithful," and "My Country, 'tis of Thee."

The following will be the program of exercises at the stand:

Apostles Creed
Hymn: "Onward, Christian Soldiers."
Scripture Lesson.
Hymn: "The Son of God Goes Forth to War."
Hymn: "When the Roll is Called."
Prayers for the Sunday Schools
The Lord's Prayer
Hymn: "I Love Him."
Hymn: "Stand up Stand up for Jesus."
Address.
Hymn: "O Come all ye Faithful."
Hymn: "My Country 'tis of Thee."
Doxology.
Benediction.

REVIVAL MEETINGS

Another Large Congregation at The Methodist Protestant Church Last Night.

The largest audience of the series greeted Mr. Starke at the Methodist Protestant Church last night to hear his address on "Indifference." It was a very searching address in which he held his audience in the grip of his earnestness and enthusiasm for over an hour and a quarter.

The crowds are increasing in size each night, and the officials of the church express fear that the church will not be able to hold more than a half of the people by Sunday night.

The Evangelist will give another searching address tonight, taking for his subject, "Neglect."

Saturday night a mass meeting of the Christians of Alexandria will be held in the Methodist Protestant Church at 7:30 o'clock which all the Christians of this city are urged to be present. The subject is to be "Alexandria for Christ." Evangelist Starke will have charge of the service, and will make a short address, after which a number of short talks will be made by the workers in the various city churches. It is believed that this will prove the most interesting and profitable meeting of the entire series.

Mr. Starke announces as his subject for the Sunday morning hour, "The Dry Bones of Alexandria," and a rather sensational sermon is expected at that time.

MURDER AND SUICIDE.

Woman About to Return to Husband in Baltimore Shot Down.

In view of her son, Charles, a flaxen-haired boy, 5 years old, Mrs. Annie Smith, 24 years old, was killed in a third story front room of a tenement house at the northwest corner of Greene and Saratoga streets, Baltimore, last night by William Bernard Burke, a bartender, who, after shooting at the boy, committed suicide.

Jealousy is the motive which prompted the crime. Mrs. Smith, who had been living with Burke for two months, had planned to return to her husband, Frank H. Smith, a shipping clerk, last night. She left Smith, accompanied by the child, in May. On Wednesday she called him by telephone and was promised full forgiveness if she would return to him and her 3-year-old child, Bertram.

Smith was to arrive at 7 o'clock. At 6:15 o'clock Burke, who, according to neighbors, had been beating the woman in the afternoon arrived.

In the meantime Mrs. Smith had taken refuge in the front room of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clarke, on the same floor. The two women, the child and Clarke were at supper when Burke knocked on the door. When Mrs. Smith appeared he said:

"Give me the locket," referring to a locket containing the woman's picture.

"Go away and don't come back until you are sober," she replied.

In reply he drew a pistol and shot her under the right eye. According to Mrs. Clarke, he, then fired at the boy twice, after which he placed the weapon in his own mouth and pulled the trigger. He died almost instantly, but the woman crawled to a bed, where she was found in an attitude of prayer, with the locket still clasped in her hands.

The husband was going up the stairs when he heard the shots. Because "he didn't want to get into trouble" he went away, returning later in the evening to claim his son.

ASSAILANT STILL AT LARGE.

The police have been unable to locate Wm. Johnson, a negro, who shot Thomas Burrage, another negro, at the plant of the Bromilaw Brick Co., yesterday afternoon. Burrage was taken to the Alexandria Hospital where his condition is regarded as favorable. He was shot in the leg and in the arm.

ALEX. COUNTY LIGHTING CO

ENORMOUS WHEAT CROP.

America Has Yield Aggregating Nine Hundred Million Bushels.

New York, Oct. 9.—The wheat crop of the United States this year is the greatest ever harvested, not only in the number of bushels, but in money value, as well.

The government experts have figured that the country will have almost 900,000,000 bushels in the bins, an increase of more than 100,000,000 bushels over the bumper crop of last year.

This crop alone will put nearly a billion dollars into the pockets of the farmers, at the prices now quoted on the Chicago wheat pit. With demand for wheat from many countries, it is expected that none will go to waste. Corn and oats showed even greater gains.

The government crop report, issued today, was the last of importance for this season. It gave the size of the indicated total wheat crop as 892,000,000 bushels, as compared with 896,000,000 bushels on September 1.

The deterioration thus indicated does not affect the status of the crop as the biggest in the country's history.

RAISE ALMONDS IN JERSEY.

Westmont Man Succeeds With Paper-Shelled Nuts.

Westmont, N. J., Oct. 9.—That Jersy soil will successfuly grow a great variety of products has been known a long time, and this year another has been added to the list, paper-shelled almonds are quite a novelty, and William H. Anthony, of Westmont Heights, has explained to many inquirers the "hows and whys." The nuts are of a fair size and of a flavor that compares favorably with those the finest imported. The trees are about eight years old, and this year are about a peck, although last year each tree had a few.

In appearance the trees much resemble the peach, but have a smooth bark and a longer leaf. Mr. Anthony grows also a hard-shelled almond which for flavor is preferred to the soft-shelled variety.

AGED VETERAN SHOT.

Festus Wharton, of Caroline, Found Dead near his Home by Girl.

Fredericksburg, Va. Oct. 9—Festus Wharton, a highly esteemed citizen of Brandywine, Caroline county, was shot to death by an unknown person near his home Tuesday night. Mr. Wharton's face was torn away by a load of shot.

Searching parties have been on the lookout for the murderer. The crime is believed to have been committed as the result of an old grudge. Mr. Wharton was seventy-five years of age, and, so far as known, did not have an enemy in the world. He was a Confederate veteran and served in the war with honor.

The body of the aged man was found by a girl.

REV. T. C. DARST BISHOP.

Chosen for Episcopal Diocese of North Carolina.

Richmond, Oct. 9—Rev. T. C. Darst rector of St James' Episcopal Church Richmond, was yesterday elected bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Eastern Carolina by the diocesan council sitting at Washington, N.C.

Ten names, it is understood, were before the council, balloting having begun on Wednesday, resulting yesterday afternoon in the election of the Richmond clergyman.

Mr. Darst was notified by telegraph late yesterday of his election. He wired a reply thanking the council for the honor conferred upon him, and advising the body that he would give serious and prayerful consideration to the matter before rendering a decision.

He will not render a final decision in the matter for a week or ten days.

Rev. T. C. Darst is a native of Pulaski county and is forty years of age. He was educated at Roanoke college and at Theological seminary at Alexandria, graduating from that institution in 1902. After being ordained by Bishop Peterkin, of West Virginia, he began his ministerial work taking charge of two churhes in Fauquier county, where his work gave the highest satisfaction. He was called to Richmond, five years ago, taking the pulpit of St. Mark's Episcopal church.

From St. Mark's he went to Newport News, where he served as rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church for about four years.

In February of this year he accepted the assistant rectorship of St. James' Episcopal church of this city coming to the aid of Rev. Dr. William Meade Clark, who was then in declining health. Upon Dr. Clark's death he succeeded to the rectorship of St. James.

The Bishop-elect is a widower with several children, Mrs. Darst having died last November in Newport News.

DROWNED IN RIVER

W. H. DeWitt Believed to Have Fallen In.

Lynchburg, Va., Oct., 9—W. H. De Witt, aged about 40 years, a resident of Amherst county, was drowned in the James river some time Tuesday night. Apparently he fell into the river accidentally.

DeWitt was seen near the scene of the drowning, which was a short distance above Scott's mill Tuesday night about eleven o'clock. On Wednesday morning his grip, hat and some papers were seen near the point where Buck's branch flows into the river and this led to the belief that he had been drowned. The river was searched a short time, and the body was recovered a short distance from where it could be seen that the man had fallen into the river.

Foot prints led from the place where the grip was left to within a short distance from the water, and there the man seems to have slipped down and fallen into the water.

DeWitt has for sometime been engaged in selling fruit trees. He lived near Sweet Briar.

WARNED AGAINST POLITICS

All Federal Employees Reminded of Ban Upon Activity.

Washington, D. C., Oct., 9—Red, white and blue Rosters, issued as a warning to all Federal officers and employees against activity in politics were set out bf the Civil Service Commission yesterday to every office of the United States Government, including those outside this city, with instructions to those in charge to "please post conspicuously" in places where the clerks can see them.

Extracts from the civil service law and rules and executive orders warning Federal employees to abstain from political activity and political assesment were printed in the poster which contains this provision against political assessments.

No officer, clerk, or other person in the service of the United States shall directly or indirectly, give or hand over to any officer, clerk or person in the service of the United States, or to any Senator or member of or delegate to Congress, or resident Commissioner any money or other valuable thing on account of or to be applied to the promotion of any political object whatever.

EMBEZZLER MAY GO FREE.

Van Auken Sentenced to Two Years on Roads. Maximum is one Year.

Richmond, Va. Oct. 9—C. E. Van Auken, formerly of Halifax county, finds himself in the anomalous position of being sentenced to serve two years on the roads, which is contrary to the laws of the State. His crime was embezzlement. He pleaded guilty.

Van Auken was caught in Indianapolis, Ind., sometime ago, and was brought back to Virginia and convicted. The jury gave him two years on the public roads. The law provides that the maximum sentence to the roads shall be one year.

There is another provision of law, however, that requires that all convicts sent to the penitentiary for as much as five years shall be transferred to the road force. There is no conflict in the law on this point.

Yesterday Marshall B. Booker, attorney for the Commonwealth, and B. Watkins Leigh, counsel for the man, called on the Governor to ask that he send the man to the penitentiary for a term of two years and then have him transferred to the road force. Whether this can be done remains to be seen. The Governor is unable to order a new trial for the man, and unless there is some way to commute the term of two years in the prison and then subject him to the law governing the sending of men to the roads, it may that the man will go free.

MRS. MORGAN AIDS IN WAR

With Other Refugees on Liner She Knits for English Troops.

New York, Oct. 9—Women passengers, including Mrs. J. P. Morgan, on the White Star Liner Celtic, which arrived yesterday from Liverpool, spent many hours on the voyage across knitting socks, jackets and mufflers for the soldiers, who will endure hardships in the winter's campaign of the European wars. Mrs. Morgan completed five pairs of scoks one jacket and two mufflers, and turned them over to the Celtic's purser upon the ship's arrival here. The wool was sold to her and the others who knitted after they went aboard the Celtic in England, and the patterns were supplied by the British Government. Mrs. Morgan is a member of the needlework guild organized by Queen Mary.

KEEP LOOKING YOUNG

It's Easy—If You Know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

The secret of keeping young is to feel young—to do this you must watch your liver and bowels—there's no need of having a sallow complexion—dark rings under your eyes—pimples—a bilious look in your face—dull eyes with no sparkle.

Your doctor will tell you ninety per cent of all sickness comes from inactive bowels and liver.

Dr. Edwards, a well-known physician in Ohio, perfected a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil to act on the liver and bowels, which he gave to his patients for years.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, are gentle in their action, yet always effective.

They bring about that exuberance of spirit, that natural buoyancy which should be enjoyed by everyone, by toning up the liver and clearing the system of impurities.

You will know Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets by their olive color. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.

THIN FOLKS MADE FAT.

The Way Samose Works its Wonders Guaranteed by Leadbeaters.

More than half the readers of the Gazette would give almost anything to be plump and rosy instead of thin and scrawny.

Physicians and chemists for years have studied the problem of making a flesh forming food, but it is only within the last few months that a bright man discovered the prescription that taken with the daily meals give a positive increase in flesh. In fact it was so certain in its action that a guarantee was attached to each package stating that if weight did not increase as a result of using it, the purchase price would be refunded.

This preparation is now put in convenient form for use under the name of Samose.

Leadbeater & Sons have secured the agency in Alexandria for Samose and as the percentage of satisfactory results from the use of this prescription, is so nearly one hundred per cent they feel there is no risk in offering to refund the money if Samose does not do all that is claimed for it.

Everybody that is thin and out of health should begin today the use of Samose with a guarantee like this.

WAR COST $55 A SECOND.

Like an Economic Earthquake, Producing Colossal Change.

London Oct. 9—"This war is costing the country £11 per second, day and night," said Sidney Webb, well known as a political economist, in a lecture yesterday at the School of Economics and Political Science, of which he was the principal founder.

The war, he added, was equivalent to a species of economic earthquake, which was upsetting everything and presenting everything in a new light Nobody could predict to what degree of good or evil the world would be changed by the war, the speaker said, but the change undoubtedly would be colossal.

RED MEN'S NIGHT IN ALEXANDRIA.

The origin of the Improved Order of Red Men carries us back to colonial days. When the forefathers of our country began to complain of the unreasonable demands made upon them by George the Third and held nocturnal meetings to discuss the advisability of attempting to throw off the yoke of the mother country red coats were a menace to their plans. They were to be found everywhere watching the movements of the colonists, and all sorts of schemes were devised in order to escape their close espionage. At that time Indians were numerous in this section of the new world, and they mingled daily with white people, selling skins and other articles, but generally soliciting small change or "fire water." The early patriots hit upon the plan of dressing as red men in order to divert suspicion, and many English-speaking persons, masquerading as aborigines, gathered, especially at night, to foment what was called treason. It will be remembered that white men disguised as Indians threw the tea from British ships into the water at Boston.

As time went on these 'tribes" increased in the land and gave the British much trouble. After the United States gained her independence these bands were continued in many places as fraternal organizations, and it may be said that Alexandria has always had at least one of these tribes as a memento of revolutionary days.

There have at times been several of these organizations in this city. The greatgrandfathers of the present generation were members of the Senecas, which flourished for a time, to be succeeded by the War Eagles. On some old tombstones in our cemeteries these names can be found.

For many succeeding years but one tribe existed in Alexandria—Osceola—which has during in its long life had the names of some of our best citizens upon its rolls. In recent years younger braves organized Seminole Tribe of this city, which has been vigorous from its birth, and is growing all the time.

The turnout of members of these tribes accompanied by representatives of the order from other places together with over two hundred pale faces, prospective warriors, last night, was an event in Alexandria long to be remembered. The line was one of the longest of any organization ever seen on the streets of our city. The pageant was imposing. A long line of automobiles containing members of the order led the procession. Flambeaux were carried by all in the line which produced a fine effect. Music accompanied the marchers.

The scenes at the Richmond Theatre which was the objective point of the paraders were festive and exilerating, and all who participated are loud in their expressions of the pleasantries of the evening.

Osceola and Seminoles Tribes are among Alexandria's most esteemed institutions, and the entire community rejoices with them in the vigor which they display.

LONG FORESAW WAR.

Bordeaux, Oct. 9—Paul Albert Helmer, the Alsatian patriot who while at the head of the anti-German league had to give up his propaganda immediately before the outbreak of the present war and flee for his life, granted an interview to a correspondent here.

Not only was a price set upon Helmer's head at the time of his escape from Alsace, but it was decreed that any one harboring him would be put to death.

He is now here leading the life of a peaceful citizen.

"My intimate knowledge of the general habit of mind of the Kaiser and of the tendencies shared with him by his entourage enable me long ago to forecast the momentous exents that recently amazed the world.

"Underlying the ultimatum of Austria to Servia was the intention to strike at the prestige of both Russia and England. But judged from the Pan-Germanistic viewpoint the result has shown terrible miscalculation.

"The Germanic war party, I am positive, viewed with ever increasing apprehension the effect of the French law adopting the three-year term of military service. The war party realized beyond question, that the three-year law was having a double effect. The result of the law was first of course, an increase of effective strength and, secondly, an enormous augmentation of the proportion of autonomy in Alsace is obviously an alternative to reannexation by France as the only attitude possible in the circumstances."

M. Helmer here digressed to say that he had just received word that two of his friends in Alsace, Dr. Sieffermann and a former Alsatian deputy named Brenn, had been shot because of their evident sympathies for France.

"The heart of Alsace, every sentiment of Alsatians," he continued, "is and always has been essentially Gallic and always will remain so.

"The Kaiser whose character I know so well, is not a war lord. If the world knew him as I do he would not be so generally misunderstood in this respect. He is neither a war lord nor a strong military character in the Bismarckian sense.

"The Kaiser is merely a weak, vain and very emotional man. As he is fond of show, so also is he at heart attached to peace, but once the present crisis arose he was driven headling in a current which proved too strong for him. Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg himself is lacking in the real genius of statecraft, and Von Bethmann-Hollweg has been the Kaiser's evil counsellor.

"In fact in all Germany no great directing intellect exists today. Therefore the edifice of militarism upon which the Pan-Germanic idea has been so clumsily constructed is tottering. Very soon it will fall and lie buried in the ruins of its own ideas."

CORNS QUIT, PAINS STOP, WITH "GETS-IT."

Quit Plasters, Salves and What-Not

After using "Gets-It" once you will never again have occasion for asking, "What can I do to get rid of my corns," "Gets-It" is the first sure, certain corn ender ever known.

If you have tried other things by the score and will now try "GETS-IT" you will realize this glorious fact.

You probably are tired stickling on tape that won't stay stuck, plasters that shift themselves right onto your corn, contraptions that make a bundle of your toe and press right down on the corn. Put two drops of "GETS-IT" on that corn in two seconds. The corn is then doomed as sure as night follows day. The corn shrivels. There's no pain, no fuss. If you think this sounds too good to be true try it tonight on any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

WORK EXHIBIT

There will be held in the Academy parlors from Thursday to Saturday of this week an exhibit of work done by the class in china painting at St. Mary's Academy.

The public is cordially invited to visit the display on these days between the hours of 9 a. m. and 8 p. m.

The General says:

If your dealer offers you an unknown brand of roofing, ask him who stands behind it and whether the manufacturer is a responsible concern. If he doesn't know, or if he refuses to give you the information, you are justified in buying elsewhere. Dealers who handle

Certain-teed

Quality Certified Roofing Durability Guaranteed

—do not hesitate to say who makes it. In fact, one of their strongest arguments is to tell their customers that we are the manufacturers of Certain-teed Roofing.

Certain-teed Roofing is guaranteed 5 years for 1-ply, 10 years for 2-ply, and 15 years for 3-ply, and we stand behind this guarantee with the biggest roofing and building paper mills in the world.

PUBLICITY

Sure Cure for Corporate Diseases.

The startling disclosures of corporate mismanagement in the last ten years have brought about a general feeling that publicity of corporation affairs is both necessary and desirable for the future well-being of all corporations. This publicity may be affected in many ways and should give the public as well as the stockholders such information as will eliminate all possible chance for corruption and mismanagement.

In the past, managers of some corporations have operated their business in a more or less arrogant fashion, persistently refusing to make their acts known to the public or even to their stockholders. In most instances if these operations had been made public at the time, many of the ills from which they are now suffering would not have occurred, and millions of dollars of investment would have been saved.

The effect of corporate mismanagement is greatly magnified, however, when its discovery comes too late by governmental investigation. Generally speaking, if the facts were voluntarily made public, or if they were made known through established methods of publicity, in the regular course of business, the mismanagement of the corporation would never occur or it could be remedied immediately and the bad effect of it would be comparatively small.

And so it is with many houses of business—in the field of commerce and manufacture. They are afraid of publicity—afraid to have their factories examined and to let purchasers verify statements or facts concerning the goods. The only conclusion to be reached in such case is that the manufacturer has something to conceal, which, if discovered, would not bear out his assertions.

Publicity in relation to all business matters is the best cure for their evils, just as light and air kill the germs of disease.

Consult your local dealer. He will be glad to give you detailed information about our complete line of goods, and will quote you reasonable prices. Be sure goods are made and guaranteed by us.

Why Not Publish It?

When you want a fact to become generally known, the right way is to publish it. Mrs. Joseph Kallans, Peru Ind., was troubled with belching sour stomach and frequent headaches. She writes, "I feel it my duty to tell others what Chamberlain's Tablets have done for me. They have helped my digestion and regulated my bowels. Since using them I have been entirely well." What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

COURT OF APPEALS.

Plaintiffs Lose Their Case Brought In Madison County Circuit Court.

Richmond, Oct. 9.—The Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia yesterday refused to grant an appeal in the suit of E. S. Blankenbaker and others vs. L. L. Blankenbaker and others. The case came from the Circuit Court of Madison county, where the plaintiffs lost a suit brought by them to reform a deed conveying certain property "for the benefit of Elliott S. Blankenbaker, his wife and their children." The conveyance was made by L. L. Blankenbaker, trustee.

A writ of error was granted in the suit of H. N. Holdsworth vs. W. E. Anderson. This case came from the Circuit Court of Prince Edward county, where judgment was rendered against the plaintiff. The suit grew out of a transaction involving a promissory note for $500.

Appeal and supersedeas were awarded in the case of A. E. Browder and others vs. the Camp Manufacturing Company and others, from the Circuit Court of Dinwiddie county, where judgment was rendered against the plaintiffs. The petitioners sought to enjoin the Camp Manufacturing Company from cutting and removing timber from a 420-acre tract of land, claiming ownership and exclusive right of it.

HIRED TO KILL POLITICIAN.

New Story as to Cause of Chicago Street Battle.

Chicago, Oct. 9—The six victims of the sensational pistol fight in the downtown district are resting well. Nathan Spira, alleged head of the arson ring, who was shot just below the heart, and was reported in a critical condition, although he is reposing well. C. P. (Barney) Bertsche, the ex-convict, politician and alleged clairvoyant swindler, who is said to have begun firing on the detectives, James Monaghan and William Egan and was himself shot through the right lung, will recover, it was said, unless complications are encountered.

The two detectives, Ted Owens, a friend of Berstche, and Joseph Schmidt, a clerk, who was hit by a stray bullet, were less seriously wounded and are expected to recover.

A story emanating from persons in the state's attorney's office had it that a gunman was employed to kill Bertsche to prevent his appearing before the crime investigation committee of the City Council, which Wednesday made public a report indicating close alliance between an inner circle of police and pickpockets.

The gunman said to have been one Kelley, is alleged to have been laying in wait for Berstche for hours and to have fired without his victim seeing him. He escaped into a nearby saloon, that of Charles Domke & Sons according to the story, and did some telephoning.

While he was escaping and Bertsche was looking wildly about for his assailant, Detective Egan strolled casually into the scene. Egan was his enemy and Bertsche opened fire at once. Detective Monaghan was walking 10 paces behind Egan and opened fire in defense of his comrade. Egan knew nothing of any gunman, he said.

The mysterious gunman meanwhile had telephoned to someone in a neighboring saloon. Domke said bystanders told him that three policemen searched the man while he was in the telephone booth. They then left, but soon returned and asked Domke where he had gone.

"We want to arrest him," Domke said they explained.

"Well, why didn't you when you had him?" Domke replied.

PRIEST SHOT ON WAY TO MASS

Says he Ran Into Woman's Home When Pursued by Armed Man.

St. Louis, Oct. 9.—The Rev. Nicola Casu assistant priest at Our Lady Help of Christians Catholic Church, was shot yesterday when he stopped at the home of Nathalie Du Mosure, a woman parishioner, while on his way to mass. He was wounded in the hand and the left shoulder. The woman was arrested.

The Rev. Caeser Spigardi, superior of the wounded priest, said the woman had asked him to help her get work, and that he had sent her to several places.

Father Casu said he was passing through an alley when a man with a revolver menaced him. To escape, he ran into the hallway leading to the woman's rooms and then upstairs. The man pursued and fired.

AN UNLUCKY BRIG.

Once Abandoned, the Marie Celeste Came to a Bad End.

There are few people who have not heard of the case of the American brig Marie Celeste, which in 1872 was inexplicably abandoned in calm weather off the Azores by a crew never after heard from. Few, however, know that it ended its career many years later at the hands of the barrator.

On its last voyage it cleared from Boston for Port an Prince, Haiti, ostensibly with a cargo of valuable general merchandise, insured for $30,000. When within a few miles of its destination it went ashore near Miragoane and became a total wreck. The captain, Parker, promptly sold the cargo, sight unseen, to American Consul Mitchell for $500. Mitchell saved it at some trouble, but lived to wish he hadn't.

When the underwriters' agent arrived on the scene to investigate, he found several funny things about the cargo. One case shipped as cutlery and insured for $1,000 contained dog collars worth $50. Barrels supposed to contain expensive liquors were full of worthless dregs, a consignment of salt fish insured for $5,000 was rotten, and other articles mentioned in the bill of lading proved to be in keeping.

Consul Mitchell, not only duped, but outlawed, stood not on the order of his going, but cleared out for tall timber. The captain of the brig was tried in the United States district court in Boston, convicted and sentenced to a long term in prison, where he died three months later.—David A. Wasson in Outing Magazine.

PRIDE OF THE UGLY CLUB.

He Was the Prize Member of an Old New York Organization.

In the New York Evening Post of May 11, 1814, appeared the following notice:

UGLY CLUB.

Ugly brothers, hither fly.
With you bring the varying eye—
Bring here cock eyes and eyes askance
That cannot pass one tender glance.
Bring goggle eyes and piercers, too;
Eyes green, white, red, black and blue.
Bring with you the eagle's sight
To see your heart and keep it right.
But bring shortsighted eyes to spy
The mote that's in your brother's eye.

The members of the Ugly club are directed to attend a special meeting at Ugly hall, 4 Wall street, on Thursday evening, the 12th inst., at 7 o'clock, to take into consideration the propriety of bestowing some suitable mark of distinction on a member who lately while viewing himself in the secretary's ugly mirror was so much pleased with his own ugly phiz that he involuntarily let fall the glass, which was dashed to pieces, and exclaimed, "I shall yet be president of the club!" The astonishing fortitude of this ugly member, in the frequent and public acknowledgment of his natural deformities, deserves the highest commendation.

The members are requested to be punctual in their attendance, as the new members elected at the last meeting and six of the ugly beauties are expected to appear.

The propriety of admitting ladies into the club will be discussed.

By order of His Ugliness.

A Round Trip.

The attorney for a street railroad company in a Kentucky town was examining a skinny sixteen-year-old negro boy who had sued for injuries ostensibly incurred in a collision on the highway.

"You say," he asked, "that when this street car hit that wagon you were riding on the front seat of the wagon?"

"Dat's what I said," answered the little darky.

"And you say the force of the blow knocked you up in the air?"

"Yas, sah—'way up in de air."

"Well, how long did you stay up there?" demanded the attorney.

"Not no longer dan it took me to git down!" answered the truthful complainant promptly.—Saturday Evening Post.

Rays From a Searchlight.

The paths traversed by rays from a searchlight depend on the form of curvature of the mirror. If flat, the paths of reflected rays would be the same as those of the rays received; if the arc of a circle, the rays will be reflected to one bright focus. To have a band of parallel rays leave the mirror it must be the arc of a paraboln. Then straight rays will be reflected all parallel to each other. In air, the intensity of this beam of light would diminish, but in absolute vacuum would be as intense at any distance.—New York American.

The Right Word.

"Why do you speak of him as a finished artist?"

"Because he told me he was utterly discouraged and was going to quit the profession. If that doesn't show that he's finished I don't know what does."—Chicago Post.

Mosquitoes and Malaria.

That the mosquito is a carrier of malaria is supposed to be a recent discovery, but it was suggested in a medical work written in Ceylon 1,400 years ago.

LORIMER IS INDICTED.

With Others, Charged With Misappropriation of Funds of Defunct Chicago Bank.

Chicago, Oct. 9—William Lorimer voted out of the United States Senate after an investigation on the ground that he had not been legally elected was indicted in the Federal Court yesterday on a charge of misapplication of the funds of the La Salle St. National Bank, the forerunner of the defunct La Salle Trust and Savings Bank. Lorimer was president of both institutions.

The indictment also named Joseph P. Gallagher, with whom he had been associated in the contracting firm of Lorimer & Gallagher, as a co-defendant, charged with aiding and abetting the alleged misapplication of the funds.

The grand jury also returned indictments against three officials of the bank—Charles B. Munday, vice-president; Charles G. Fox, cashier, and Thomas McDonald, assistant cashier, charging the making of false entries.

The indictment agaist Lorimer and Gallagher, is in 36 counts and charges that the Lorimer & Gallagher Company gave worthless notes for a total of $56,500. Lorimer is charged with misapplication in buying for the bank these notes, which he, it is said, knew to be worthless.

Federal Judge Carpenter fixed Lorimer's bonds at $15,000 and those of Gallagher at $10,000. Three other defendants are at liberty on bonds fixed when they were originally indicted.

Judge Carpenter asked the foreman of the grand jury whether investigation of the case had been concluded. The latter replied that it had not.
